Department of Naval Architecture & Offshore Engineering
(NA& OE)

Career Counselling Activities 2016-2017

The Department has given emphasis on imparting technical knowledge to the students and has focused on continuous improvements in the field of placements of the students in offshore industry and Shipbuilding Industry. The students are groomed upon their personality through placement training, group discussions, written tests and mock interviews. The grooming session is conducted by the Director of the Department of NA&OE and the placement coordinator of the department to ensure maximum students get the advantage of it. The mock interviews have found to be more helpful in creating an actual situation like an interview in the company to identify strength areas within a student.

The Department has put efforts many efforts in giving exposure to the students in calling upon representatives of Industry and organized seminars on technical topics and also related to Placement training but also, the initiatives have been taken to improve the interaction by students.
