Hi Ram,

Please find attached listing of shortlisted cadets for Maersk Line and Maersk Tankers, following the cadet interviews conducted last week. Please assist to relay the information to the cadets and ensure that they are aware of the following points:

1. This is an initial shortlisting and their final selection and placement onboard Maersk vessels will be subject below conditions:
  - a. Medical fitness at the completion of their shore-based education
  - b. Their consistent performance and good grades throughout the remainder of their course
  - c. The availability of cadet training berths at the time of their readiness
2. The cadets are expected to maintain a minimum GPA of 7.0 for each semester, failing which, the Company may consider de-selection.
3. The cadets should not be involved in any disciplinary issues with AMET (i.e. attendance, drug/alcohol violation, etc) throughout the remainder of their course.
4. The cadets should declare any pre-existing medical conditions / past history of medical issues to avoid any issues in future when they are onboard.

As usual, please keep the Mumbai office updated each semester with the cadets' results. In case of any declaration or pre-existing medical conditions, please let us know so that we can take a decision if we can continue to accept him as our cadet.

Please let us know if there are any questions or clarifications needed.

Thank You
