CELEBRATIONS AND COMMEMORATIVE DAYS

ANNUAL REPORT FOR ACADEMIC YEAR 2015-2016

Academy of Maritime Education and Training takes initiatives in remembering many National and International commemorative days to impart the values of humanity. Notable days and events are observed inside the campus and outside the campus by AMET students during the academic year 2015-2016. Based upon the nature of the programme, local school students and local community people were also involved. The University also conducted a lot of training programmes for Government School students as well as Private School students. The benefits of Ship and Shipping related information and jobs were imparted to them.

As AMET has much diversified student community, to inculcate qualities like integrity, commitment, strong communication skills, teamwork, work ethics, risk-taking, positive attitude, leadership qualities and responsibility events like Foundation Day, Hostel Day, Mess Day and Clean Room Day are organized by the students themselves. Curriculum related Seminar/Workshops were also conducted in the University for a Better Understanding of Self and also for Group Dynamics, Team Building and Leadership Qualities.

Movie screening was organized for students to develop social awareness and value systems and to implement those values in their personal lives. To promote the Indian Cultural Heritage, the University conducted Workshops within the Campus and Street Plays through various Student Clubs in and around the Campus.
